Spotlight on Anjali Joshi

"When children read diverse stories, one of two incredible things happens. They either see their own experiences reflected in the pages of the book, giving them a sense of belonging and affirmation, or they learn about the experiences of those who are unlike them, broadening their worldview and developing an appreciation for diversity. Both experiences are transformative. Both experiences lead to a more inclusive, accepting world."
