

Win a Classroom Skype Visit with Brad Meltzer

Me and My Hero!

Portrait Contest

Ask your students:

Do you share some common traits with a historical figure you admire? Draw a portrait of yourself alongside a portrait of your hero and write three things you have in common.

Grand Prize:

1 Winner will receive a classroom Skype visit from Brad Meltzer plus two Ordinary People Libraries
(1 for the winner and 1 for the classroom).

10 Runners-Up will each receive an Ordinary People Library.

All entries must be received by:

February 23, 2018

Entries must be no larger than 11" x 14"
and include student name, age, and grade; teacher name; school name, address, and phone number.

Send entries to:

Me and My Hero Portrait Contest
PO Box 714, New York, NY, 10013-0714

All students who are US residents and currently attending a US school in grades K through 2 are eligible to enter except employees, and immediate family members, of Scholastic Book Clubs or its parent company. Winners will be selected based on historical accuracy, creativity, and execution. All submissions become the property of Scholastic Inc. One (1) Grand Prize will be chosen (approximate retail value: $100.00). Ten (10) Runners-Up will be chosen (approximate retail value: $35.00). Winners will be notified on or about March 23, 2018. For complete rules, please visit scholastic.com/clubcontests or send a SASE to: Me and My Hero Portrait Contest, PO Box 714, New York, NY 10013-0714. Void where prohibited.

The Ordinary People books focus on historical figures as they were growing up and might be a helpful resource for students interested in entering this contest.
