

Me and Pablo Picasso have 3 things in common. First, we are goofy because he pretends he's a mime and wears funny glasses. I am goofy because I make Luke laugh in P.E. when I do a head stand. We love drawing because he became a famous artist and I love drawing because I made ~~two~~ books, The Awesome Trip and The Madagascar Hunt Part one and part two, and The Awesome Trip and The Big Hole chapter book with colored pictures in both books. My favorite of all is that Pablo had different kinds of art like the cubes, rose, and blue. I do scary, super hero, and more kinds of art. Pablo Picasso is my favorite person from the past, who is yours?
